WHA BOARD BRIEF

Notes from regular WHA Board of Director's meeting January 12th 2009

General Business

- A Director's Resolution was passed appointing officers of the company Gordon McKeever and Tim Wake to hold the positions of President and Secretary until the next AGM scheduled for June. These appointments have been carried forward from 2008 and do not represent a change in the positions.
- The Regular WHA Board meeting was rescheduled to February 9th 2009 in the Flute room at Municipal Hall

Cheakamus Crossing Update

- With sales from the June 30th Cheakamus Crossing waitlist now complete it is confirmed that 70% of all resident restricted units at Cheakamus Crossing are under contract.
- Sales appointment with the additional 160 applicants registered on the Cheakamus Crossing waitlist that closed January 9th 2009 will commence in February for the remaining 65 Cheakamus Crossing resident restricted units.

Rainbow Update

- There are no new sales for Single Family Dwellings or Duplexes at Rainbow.

WHA Board Briefs

- In the last month the WHA Board briefs were introduced to members of the Resident Housing Advisory Group
- The WHA's Resident Housing Representative Duane Hepditch also took the opportunity to try contacting all WHA Strata Chairs of existing resident restricted projects to introduce the Board Briefs.
- WHA staff will add the Briefs to the WHA website and email out notification to the WHA Purchase waitlist. A link to the Board Briefs will also be included on the Mature Action Committee website www.whistlermac.org

Temporary Housing Initiative Update

- Work continues onsite at Holborn in anticipation of the newly named "Whistler Workforce Housing Project" moving forward in the coming months

The next Regular WHA Board of Director's Meeting will be held on Monday February 9th 2009.
